COURTYARD BY MARRIOTT, FAYETTEVILLE RECOGNIZED BY MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL AND HONORED BY THE CITY OF FAYETTEVILLE

Fayetteville, AR – July 15, 2010 – The Courtyard by Marriott in Fayetteville celebrated the achievements of its staff today in winning two prestigious awards: Marriott Courtyard Hotel of the Year and the Chairman's Award for Overall Guest Service & Satisfaction. In honor of these achievements, Mayor Lioneld Jordan presented the hotel with a Key to the City and proclaimed July 15, 2010 as "Fayetteville Courtyard by Marriott Day." Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce President Steve Clark further presented the hotel and its staff with a Chamber Board of Directors Resolution.

Mr. Bill Marriott presented these awards and several others to T.J. Angeleno during a trip to Washington D.C. earlier this year for excellence within the Marriott family of hotels. "We have great people who are committed to providing wonderful experiences for our guests," says Marriott. The Courtyard by Marriott, Fayetteville earned these awards by creating unparalleled guest experiences and executing a clear vision for guest satisfaction while remaining heavily involved within the Fayetteville community.

"We are extremely honored and humbled to be recognized with these awards, especially coming from the world's lodging leader, Marriott," says T.J. Angeleno, General Manager at the Courtyard by Marriott, Fayetteville. "Our team has been built with a diverse group of dedicated and passionate individuals and it is great to see them gain recognition for all of their hard work."

In addition to the above awards, the hotel received the Marriott Platinum Award, the Marriott Diamond Award, and was recognized for the Highest Guest Satisfaction Scores in the following categories: Least Problems Experienced, Overall Satisfaction, High Quality Breakfast and Top Room Cleanliness.

The Courtyard by Marriott in Fayetteville is currently in its third year of operation.
